Group Facilitator (In-Person)

Description

Pillars of Wellness has a unique partnership with a local learning center where we provide psychoeducation based workshops to individuals who experience homelessness. This program is designed to offer group services to individuals at the learning center. These are psychoeducational skills-based groups and there may be other opportunities to provide individual therapy services.

Responsibilities

- Reporting to our Clinical Director of Hobart, the Group Facilitator is responsible for assessing, diagnosing, and treating clients experiencing mental health and psychological distress
- Providing evidence-based mental health counseling, psychotherapy, and psycho-education to individuals experiencing homelessness.
- Identifying culturally appropriate treatment to meet clients' experiences and individual needs.
- Consulting with the case managers, as appropriate, to ensure effective treatment for clients.
- Working with clients to set SMART goals and develop individualized treatment plans.
- Giving clients adequate resources to gain insight through a strength-based approach to treatment.
- Identifying social, emotional, and cultural barriers that may inhibit a client's psychological wellbeing.
- Conducting group therapy sessions for clients based on specific needs (e.g., anger management, depression, anxiety, relationship issues, etc.).
- Referring clients internally to an appropriate provider or externally to other health professionals.
- Supporting clients in identifying additional resources in their local or online communities such as social services, job services, and support groups.

Qualifications

In order to be an approved Pillars Provider, we will need you to possess the following:

- Valid mental health licensure LCSW, LMHC, LMFT, LCAC, LPCC, Clinical Psychology PsyD/PhD (independent or provisional)
- National Provider Identifier (NPI number)
- Individual professional malpractice liability insurance policy ($1mil/$3mil)
